

How to subscribe to a calendar feed on my device?

In the instructions below, where it says to enter the calendar's web address use <https://minnesotamycologicalsociety.org/events.ics>.

For Mac

- In the Calendar app on your Mac, choose File > New Calendar Subscription.
- Enter the calendar's web address, then click Subscribe.
- Click the Auto-refresh pop-up menu, then choose how often to update the calendar.

For iPhone

- Go to Settings > Calendar > Accounts > Add Account > Other
- Tap Add Subscribed Calendar.
- Enter the calendar's web address to subscribe to and any other required server information.

For Google Calendar (on Web)

- On your computer, go to <https://calendar.google.com>.
- On the left, next to "Other calendars," click Add From URL.
- Enter the calendar's web address in the field provided.
- Click Add calendar.
- Copy the iCal feed address.

For Android

Subscribing to a calendar on Android is generally a two-step process. You must first add the calendar using the web version of Google Calendar, then add it to your Android device.

- Follow the instructions for Google Calendar above, from a computer.
- On your phone, open the Google Calendar app.
- Open the menu, and then go to Settings.
- Scroll to the calendar email where you added the new iCal feed
- Tap on Show more.
- Tap on your new calendar's name.
- Switch the Sync option on.
- You may also change your notifications for this calendar on this screen.

For Outlook.com

- Sign in to outlook.com.
- At the bottom of the page, select the calendar icon.
- In the navigation pane, select Import calendar.
- Under Import calendar, select From the web.
- Under Link to the calendar, copy the calendar's web address.
- Select Import.
